

Eryn Edelen
1963 Teal Drive
Kalispell, Montana 59901
406-314-1913 (phone)
eryn@bluestone-creative.com
www.bluestone-creative.com

NATHANIEL (mid-30's) is JILLIAN's (mid-20's) guardian angel and ever since she can remember, he's been coming to her every night in her dreams. Over the years, she has grown to love him, but the complications of a 'dream only' relationship and her desire for a normal existence overshadows their otherwise perfect life together.

When her best friend, EVA (20's) plans a birthday party, Jillian attends and a run-in with her boss DAX (mid-30's) casts her world into uncertain chaos as she falls for his alluring ways.

Nathaniel warns her that Dax's influence will be catastrophic for them both but she convinces herself that he is simply jealous. When Nathaniel purposefully shirks his protection and allows her to get injured in order to prove a point, she accuses him of being immature.

When Nathaniel realizes that his overprotective nature is doing more harm than good, he tells her that although he will always be there to protect her, their dream world relationship must end so that she can have a normal life. When a bout of manipulative depression fails to bring him back, she holds her head high and vows to adapt.

As time passes, her relationship with Dax matures and as she grows cold and callous, consumed with vanity and selfishness, Nathaniel is gradually transformed into a hideous 'Imarona' or Cursed One. He returns but his pleas for her change of heart only fuels her anger towards him.

A spontaneous trip with another man, SEAN (mid-20's), breaks things off with Dax and brings about an unanticipated visit from the horrifying ADRIAS, a powerful Imarona, who is bent on Jillian's demise as recompense for her treacheries against Nathaniel.

When she dies in a car accident, she faces the now terrifying Nathaniel, who must leave her for healing. She is forced to either continue her mortal life, with another guardian who is less concerned about her safety, or abandon those in the mortal realm who need her most, in order to stay with him.

In an act of selflessness, she returns to her mortal life and rebuilds her relationship with Dax and Eva on a solid foundation of humility until the time of her death when she is happily reunited with Nathaniel.